▼ ABOUT THE PARTNER INSTITUTIONS

The General Secretariat of the OAS (GS/OAS) is the central and permanent organ of the Organization of American States.

- Through its Department of Human Development, Education and Employment (DHDEE), GS/OAS supports OAS Member States in creating policies and executing programs that promote human capacity development at all educational levels.
- By enabling formative opportunities to citizens, DHDEE strengthens democratic values and security under the framework of regional integration.
- DHDEE does this: (i) by supporting the efforts of OAS member states to improve the quality of and equity in education; and (ii) by assisting the citizens of the Americas in realizing their full potential by giving them access to knowledge and skills through training that improves the standard of living for individuals, families and communities in the region.

55 years investing in People Who Make Cities Work. The Institute for Housing and Urban Development Studies (IHS) mission is to develop human and institutional capacities to reduce poverty and improve the quality of life in cities.

- The IHS is an international center of excellence of the School of Economics (ESE) and the Faculty of Social Sciences (FSS) of the Erasmus University Rotterdam, the Netherlands, operating on a global scale by offering post-graduate education, training, advisory services and applied research.
- Today more people live in cities than ever before. Our urban future confronts us with great innovations and challenges.
- Cities need urban professionals who can understand, face and manage these developments to create urban futures that improve the quality of life in cities.
- IHS trains and advises these professionals on a global scale through its integrated approach in education, advisory services and research that offers practice and theory on urban management and development.
